

IRCT 10th Scientific Symposium – Delivering on the Promise of the Right to Rehabilitation

Mexico City 5-7 December, 2016

Presentation author contact details.

To add any missing details to this publically available list please contact ldr@irct.org.

To contact any authors with no available contact details please contact ldr@irct.org.

Title	1st Presenting Author First Name	1st Presenting Author Last Name	1st Presenting Author Email	Other Contacts
"Come as you are" a journey to reconnection and healing after trauma and transition (RHATT)	Yvette	Aiello	yvette.aiello@sswahs.nsw.gov.au
"There is no worse torture than not knowing...": The waiting game of Australia's border protection policies and the effects on trauma and recovery	Andres	Leal	lealito@gmail.com
100 years of the post-traumatic disorders studies at the Faculty of Medicine at the Jagiellonian University in Kraków, Poland	Krzysztof	Rutkowski	mzrutkow@cyf-kr.edu.pl

16 years in support of survivors of torture from Moldova - Rehabilitation Center for torture Victims "Memoria".	Ludmila	Popovici
A creative arts-based intersubjective approach to treating severe trauma and torture	Steve	Frazier	slfrazier7@sbcglobal.net
A medical examination at the beginning of an asylum procedure: How?	Elsbeth	Kors	e.kors@stichtingimmoo.nl
A novel bio-psycho-social approach for rehabilitation of traumatized victims of torture and war in the post-conflict context: A pilot randomized controlled trial in Kosovo	Shr-Jie Sharlenna	Wang
A perverse state: Ireland's disavowal of torture - past and present	Aisling	Hearns
Acceso a la rehabilitación: Centros independientes y políticas públicas	Mariana	Lagos	eatipargentina2@gmail.com
Acute short term treatment approach for newly arrived traumatized refugees	Mechthild	Wenk-Ansohn	m.wenk-ansohn@bzfo.de

Adecuación de las intervenciones psicosociales en poblaciones indígenas: Quechua, aymara y guarani en situación de post conflicto	Emma Bolshia	Bravo Cladera	emma.bolshia@itei.org.bo
An analysis of the principles and professional standards guiding humanitarian action: Do they ensure the protection and rehabilitation of survivors of human rights abuses?	Sonali	Gupta	dr.sonalipgupta@gmail.com
An integrated approach to child sexual abuse intervention: Perspectives and experiences of stakeholders in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia	Firehiwot	Alito
Asegurando la implementación del derecho a la rehabilitación mediante la formación de la red nacional de peritos y expertos independientes contra la Tortura en México	Felicitas	Treue	treue@contralatortura.org
Boys do cry: Improving the identification and rehabilitation strategies for male	Erika Sofia	Valtierra-Gutierrez	erivalt.93@gmail.com

victims of sexual torture in Mexico
Building community and sharing knowledge from the mental health field: Healing from torture in the face of ongoing obstacles	Dawn	Stary	dawnstary11@gmail.com
Building evaluation into torture rehabilitation centers: Best practices and real-world approaches	Jennifer	Esala	jesala@cvt.org
Can engagement with survivors release the empowering potential of torture rehabilitation?	Kolbassia	Haoussou	khaoussou@freedomfromtorture.org
Capoeira Angola: An alternative intervention programme for traumatized adolescent refugees	Shakeh	Momartin
Central American migrants: Expanding the way we think about asylum seekers	Amy	Joscelyne
Challenges facing rehabilitation centers for torture survivors in Jordan: The Institute for Family Health as an example	Ibrahim	Aqel

Challenges in implementing the right to rehabilitation for former Guantanamo detainees	Polly	Rossdale	pollyrossdale@hotmail.com	Katie Taylor Katie.taylor@reprieve.org.uk.
Challenges of implementing mental health services to foreign born torture survivors living in the United States	Alison	Burke
Chronic pain as a relevant target for the rehabilitation of torture survivors: Implementation of a pain school intervention in Cambodia and outcome in two pilot studies	Uwe	Harlacher	uwe.harlacher@hotmail.com
Clinical information systems: The gadget that turns data into evidence-based decisions	Carlena	Tu	carlena.tu@sswahs.nsw.gov.au
Community life offers rehabilitation opportunities for survivors of torture... and challenges	Nancy	Bothne	nbothne@thechicagoschool.edu
Community-based sociotherapy in post-gacaca Rwanda: Its contribution to peace-building, mental health and psychosocial wellbeing	Emmanuel	Sarabwe	emmanuelsarabwe@gmail.com

Contribuciones del EATIP para alegatos en juicios por crímenes de lesa humanidad	Mariana	Lagos	eatipargentina2@gmail.com
Data in the Fight Against Impunity: Evidencing human rights violations and rehabilitation rights of survivors of torture through the IRCT Global Clinical Database	L	Macmillan
Deficiencia en la aplicación del Protocolo de Estambul en México: Analisis de 27 peritajes médico-psicológicos realizados por diferentes dependencias gubernamentales	Emmanuel	Santos	emm_santos@yahoo.com.mx
Delivering on the right to rehabilitation: Successes, lessons and challenges: A Kenya civil society perspective	Peter	Kiama
Development of a monitoring and evaluation handbook for services for torture survivors, and guidelines on how to do it	Amanda	Williams	amanda.williams@ucl.ac.uk
Dilemma of sectorial vs multidisciplinary rehabilitation organization	Camelia	Doru	cameliadoru@icarfoundation.ro

Disruptive innovation against destructive power: Will human rights prevail?	Frances	Lovemore	franlovemore@gmail.com
Documentation and analysis of torture case characteristics and the 2007 to 2008 period of post-election violence in Kenya	Human Rights	CAT Kenya
Does our work get lost in translation?	Celeste	Matross	cmatross@csvr.org.za	Dominique Dix-Peek ddixpeek@csvr.org.za, Marinda Kotze mkotze@csvr.org.za
Effectiveness of a noninvasive digital infrared thermal imaging in the diagnosis of torture: Case report	Rasime Şebnem	Korur Fincanci
Efficacy of rehabilitation and treatment approaches: Group counseling torture treatment model for low-resource settings	Veronica	Laveta	vlaveta@cvt.org
Efficacy of traditional cultural practices in the rehabilitation of victims of torture in Nigeria's Niger Delta	Abosedo	Babatunde	bose_babatunde@yahoo.co.uk
Efficacy of treatment approaches for victims and survivors of organised violence and torture within community-based	Lynn	Walker	lynnwalker@tolzim.org	Mr Craig Higson-Smith chighsonsmith@cvt.org

settings in Zimbabwe
e-Health Project: Medical doctors for human rights www.MD4HR.net "Access to justice of torture survivors through health information availability and accessibility"	Mercidita	de Joya
El aislamiento, la dispersión, el exilio y la distancia como forma de tortura y destrucción de la identidad y la resistencia del sujeto	Mirta	Fabre
El Trabajo del ITEI en Pando, Sucre y Santa Cruz luego de los acontecimientos del año 2008 en Bolivia	Marcelo	Flores
Elders seeking treatment	Lin	Piwowarczyk	piwo@bu.edu
Elusive retributive justice in post-Khmer Rouge Cambodia: Challenges of using ECCC Victim Information Forms as a victim participatory rights mechanism	Leakhena	Nou

Embedding and integrating community based participatory research in development of biopsychosocial and systemic early childhood interventions for families from refugee backgrounds	Mariano	Coello
Encubrimiento de casos de tortura como falta ética grave en el ejercicio de la profesión medica por los forenses de la Audiencia Nacional Española	Susana Beatriz	Etchegoyen	susanaetchegoyen@gmail.com
Enriching social connectedness: Experience from the families in cultural transition (FICT) Program	Shaun	Nemorin
Evaluation of a multimodal treatment program for refugees in treatment at Berlin Center for Torture Victims	Carina	Heeke	c.heeke@bzfo.de
Evidence and innovation: Use of Electroencephalogram (EEG) in the process of assessment, treatment and evaluation of the treatment outcomes in work with refugee	Mirjana	Askovic	mirjana.askovic@sswahs.nsw.gov.au survivors of torture and trauma

Expanding vulnerability guidelines to facilitate access to rehabilitation for survivors of torture seeking refugee protection in Canada	Kirby	Huminuik	kirbyhuminuik@gmail.com
Experiences and mental health of internally displaced persons within the context of the armed conflict and the reparation process in Colombia	Carina	Heeke	c.heeke@bzfo.de
Facilitating referrals into treatment for asylum-seekers and new refugees with mental disorders: The STAR-MH screening tool	Debbie	Hocking	Preferred: debbie.Hocking@flor ey.edu.au Secondary: deb@deborahhockin g.com
Fight against impunity in Germany?- The first trial on universal jurisdiction against FDLR leaders	Bianca	Schmolze

Five years in the making: Reflections and impact statistics on a dual direct services and capacity building - CVT project providing LRA related trauma mental health to northern Uganda agencies	Paul	Orieny
Forgiveness and reconciliation following human rights abuses: Is it possible? The impact of post-transitional justice in Chile on exiled survivors of political violence	Cristian	Pena	cristian@londrespractice.org
The applicability of creative movement therapies in the healing process of torture victims in a conflict scenario in manipur, India	Debabrata Roy	LAIFUNGBAM	Laifungbam@coremanipur.org	Prof. Akshayakumar Kumar Mayengbam m_ak_singh@yahoo.co.in, Ms. Manju Verma subsyalag@gmail.com , Ms. Sunitibala Takhelmayum sunitibala@coremanipur.org
Gender-based violence and the power of shame: Historical reflections on the development of therapeutic strategies for survivors of sexual torture	Inger	Agger	inger.agger@gmail.com
Grief and Disappearance. Psychotherapeutic work with relatives	Barbara	Preitler of disappeared persons

Group psychotherapy model for asylum seekers and refugees being submitted to torture and war: clinical experiences and research	Boris	Drozdek	drozdek@telfort.nl
Help for victims of the political persecution in the country of the origin - Polish experience	Krzysztof	Rutkowski	mzrutkow@cyf-kr.edu.pl
How psychosomatic symptoms relate to alternative expressions of depression within a non-western clinical sample of torture survivors	Celeste	Matross	cmatross@csvr.org.za
ICAR health reports as evidence in court: Impact on European Court of Human Rights	Camelia	Doru	cameliadoru@icarfoundation.ro
Incidencia en la malla curricular de la Facultad de Psicología para la formación de profesionales de la psicología	Yadira	Narvaez	yadiraymargarita@yahoo.com
Indicators likely to contribute to treatment success among survivors of torture: Heartland Alliance Marjorie Kovler Center	Martin	Hill	mhill@heartlandalliance.org

Integrated trauma-informed health care: What Cambodian torture survivors teach us about multidisciplinary approaches to torture rehabilitation	S Megan	Berthold	megan.berthold@uc onn.edu
Is reconsolidation impairment a viable treatment option in LMICs?	Bhushan	Guragain	bhushan@cvict.org.n p
Is rehabilitation and preventive care for 0 to 5 year olds from refugee backgrounds a right or an imperative?	Mariano	Coello
Istanbul Protocol as a tool for rehabilitation of torture victims	Kristina	Gevorkyan
Justice and impunity: Implications for the rehabilitation process of torture survivors in Romania	Camelia	Doru	cameliadoru@icarfou ndation.ro
Justice and reparation in Peru: Voices and perspectives	Nora	Sveaass	nora.sveaass@psykol ogi.uio.no
	Juana Luisa	Lloret	yenylloret@gmail.co m
	Anne Margrethe	Sønneland	sonneland@diakonhj emmet.no
Keeping hope alive - Providing services to torture survivors in immigration detention	Bernadette	McGrath	bmcgrath@osstt.org. au

La tortura como proceso: Los impactos de la impunidad, los/as familiares como víctimas y el derecho a la rehabilitación integral	Valeria	Moscoso
Lessons from history: The aftermath of crushing the 1982 coup attempt in Kenya	Hilda	Nyatete	hnyatete@imlu.org
Let the data tell the story: Using clinical evidence to secure the right to rehabilitation - The experience in Australia	Paula	Peterson	paulapeterson@fasst.org.au
Life after torture: The use of spiritual assets by torture survivors in a clinic setting in Gauteng, South Africa	Lorraine	Shabalala	gshabalala@csvr.org.za
Life in Limbo: The implications for torture and trauma rehabilitation of a pathway to temporary protection in Australia.	Lachlan	Murdoch
Lived experience of torture among slum dwellers in Dhaka City, Bangladesh	Dr. Md. Mofijul Islam	Bulbul	bulbul1022@yahoo.com
Long term effects of untreated childhood trauma in the group of former deportees: Results of MMPI-2	Krzysztof	Rutkowski	mzrutkow@cyf-kr.edu.pl

Mai-mai militia and sexual violence in Democratic Republic of the Congo	Kitwe Mulunda G	Guy	savecongo@hotmail.com
MANTRA: Assisting MAN survivors of Torture and Rape remember, process and record their unspeakable and painful experiences	Yvette	Aiello	yvette.aiello@sswahs.nsw.gov.au
Medical care in Athens, Greece, for migrants and refugees who have suffered torture and other forms of ill-treatment	Ioanna	Kotsioni
Medical documentation of torture in hot conflicts where systemic torture, widespread detention and mass displacement decimate populations – Case study: Syria	Christy	Fujio	christy@humanrightsconsultant.org
Mental health and gender based violence. Helping survivors of sexual violence in conflict: A manual	Nora	Sveaass	nora.sveaass@psykologi.uio.no	postmaster@hhri.org manual available on http://www.hhri.org/
Migrantes sobrevivientes de malos tratos en su tránsito por México. Detección, atención y rehabilitación brindada por MSF	Carmen	Rodriguez	msfe-mexico-psy@barcelona.msf.org

Multi-center approach over eight years to provide ongoing evidence from clinical research to ensure and sustain effective rehabilitation programs for torture survivors in the United States	Member Centers of the National Consortium of Torture Treatment Centers	United States	Crystal Riley rileyc@ohsu.edu	S. Megan Berthold megan.berthold@uc onn.edu , Linda Piwowarczyk piwo@bu.edu , Jose Quiroga jquirogamd@aol.com
Multi-disciplinary approaches to torture rehabilitation: Professional supervision and mentoring across domains	Amber	Gray
Multilingual Computer Assisted Self Interview (MultiCASI): An innovative approach in the assessment of traumatized refugees residing in Australia	Jorge	Aroche
Multilingual Relaxation CD	Mariano	Coello
Narrative Exposure Therapy (NET) for treatment of torture and war-traumatized survivors in the Middle East and North African (MENA) region: Experience from an educational project	Ane Kirstine	Viller Hansen	akvh@dignityinstitut e.dk	Dr Issam Smeir ism@dignityinstitute.dk Ms Lianne Engelkes-Heby le@dignityinstitute.dk
Obstacles to torture rehabilitation at Guantánamo	Alka	Pradhan	alka.pradhan@osd.m il

Other presenters and co-authors
Patterns of emergency department use by torture survivors at the Libertas Center for Human Rights	Dinali	Fernando	dinali.fernando@mssm.edu
Penetrating transformative spaces to promote the right to rehabilitation in the Philippines	Ernesto	Anasarias
Perception of the rehabilitation of victims of torture by themselves	Florentine	YIMGUEP WAKEM Epouse NDEUMEN	menflow@yahoo.fr
Perspectiva psicosocial en la documentación de impactos a víctimas y sobrevivientes de tortura	Mariana	Castilla
Phantom limb pain treatment and rehabilitation of landmine survivors in northern Albania, 2009-2010	Gentian	Vyshka	gvyshka@gmail.com
Physiotherapy in multidisciplinary treatment for trauma afflicted refugees - development and examination of a group-based multicomponent physical activity intervention (work in progress)	Henrik	Nilsson	henrik.nilsson@redcross.se

Prevalencia de trastornos mentales postraumáticos en sobrevivientes de tortura en situación de reclusión en la Ciudad de México	Emmanuel	Santos	emm_santos@yahoo.com.mx
Promoting self-efficacy in African adult torture survivors through dance/movement therapy interventions	David Alan	Harris	davidalanharrisma@yahoo.com
Protective and risk factors of psychosocial wellbeing related to the reintegration of former child soldiers in Nepal	Ramesh	Adhikari	rameshadhikaria@gmail.com
Psychological care service approach for torture survivors in prison settings	Kizito	Wamala	clinicalpsychologist@actvuganda.org
Psychological forensic evaluations using the Istanbul Protocol to assess allegations of torture and human rights abuses on Mapuche indigenous people: Contribution of these evaluations in the national and international judicial court systems	Ruth	Vargas-Forman	ruth.vargasforman@options.org, vargasruth@usal.es
Psychosocial interventions as part of comprehensive rehabilitation processes for	Gina Paola	Donoso Roman	gina.donosoroman@ugent.be survivors of political trauma.

Reclaiming the right to play and learn	Erica	Fernandez	ericafernandez@qpastt.org.au
Reduction in re-imprisonment of torture survivors in prisons in Sri Lanka through holistic care and development programmes and reintregation into communities on release	Shanti	Arulampalam	suraso@eureka.lk
Rehabilitation as part of the introduction of refugees, and the networking required to do it	Anette	Carnemalm	anette.carnemalm@redcross.se
Rehabilitation contexts across survivor identities and groups: Resilience based support groups for Eritrean refugee survivors of torture in Israel	Ashley	de Regil	ashley@assaf.org.il
Rehabilitation of torture victims and survivors in Northeast Nigeria: Whose responsibility?	Ernest	Ogbozor	eogbozor@gmu.edu
Rehabilitation of torture victims' precondition to the reconciliation in Bosnia and Herzegovina	Jasna	Zecevic	vivezene@bih.net.ba, zecevic.jasna@gmail.com

Rehabilitation of victims of torture and restoring their dignity through livelihoods	UWIHOREY E	Chaste	uwichaste@yahoo.fr
Rehabilitation through economic empowerment	Pradeep	Agrawal
Reparación simbólica en América Latina como política de estado	Vera	Vital-Brasil	veravitalbrasil@gmail.com	Fabiana Rousseaux fabianarousseaux@hotmail.com
Repurposing torture rehabilitation programming to respond to Ebola crisis in Liberia	Seidu	Swaray		Craig Higson-Smith chighsonsmith@cvt.org
Resiliency factors identified by torture survivors	Mary	Fabri
Restart's family therapy model: A key step towards the rehabilitation of tortured refugee families?	Sana	Hamzeh
Right to rehabilitation: lessons learned and lessons to be learned in post conflict environment in Croatia	Zdenka	Pantic	zpantic@yahoo.com
Secondary torture victims: The impact of detention on family members of Palestinian political prisoners in Israeli prisons	Khader	Rasras
Securing our sector: Embedding outcomes	Stephanie	Olinga-Shannon evaluation centre wide

Seeking best practices in torture survivor identification through disclosure patterns over time	Jennifer	Esala	jesala@cvt.org
Service Efficacy: An evaluation of counselling for refugee survivors of torture and trauma	April	Pearman	april.pearman@assets.org.au
Service provider advocacy on the right to rehabilitation – experiences and challenges	Asger	Kjaerum
Specificities of multidisciplinary activities in providing assistance in refugees camps, AJPNV experiences	Nodjigoto	Charbonnel	ajpnva@yahoo.fr
Stability of posttraumatic and anxiety symptoms in chronic PTSD	Edyta	Dembinska
STARTTS Student's Placement and Student Clinic	Mariano	Coello
Subsequent generations' demand for acknowledgement of their historical trauma for healing	Filiz	Celik	ajpnva@yahoo.fr
Synthesising evidence on efficacy of psychological treatments for survivors of torture:	Amanda	Williams	amanda.williams@uc1.ac.uk

Systematic review and meta-analysis
Tackling the challenge of inducting new staff and supporting their ongoing professional development in a cost effective manner	Melanie	Leemon
The all government approach in Anti Torture Law: The Philippine experience	Edeliza	Hernandez	edelizahernandez@yahoo.com
The applicability of posttraumatic stress disorder among South African former political detainees	Ashraf	Kagee	skagee@sun.ac.za
The balancing act: International and national legal frameworks on the right to rehabilitation with contextual realities in South Africa	Annah	Moyo	amoyo@csvr.org.za
The development of a self-assessment scale for measuring post-migration stress among refugees	Andreas	Malm	andreas.malm@redcross.se
The doctor's role in improving the prevention of torture in Sri Lanka using the Istanbul Protocol	Ajith	Tennakoon

The Extreme Trauma and Torture Survivors Identification (E.T.S.I.) Interview: A specific tool for the early identification of torture victims among asylum seekers and refugees	Monica	Luci
The Freedom from Torture Measure of Clinical Change & Outcome (MOCCO): development and usage	Andy	Keefe
The importance of evidence on mass trauma in international accountability - A look at how evidence of victim trauma was used in the trial against senior Khmer Rouge officials before the Extraordinary Chambers in the courts of Cambodia	Nushin	Sarkarati	nsarkarati@cja.org
The randomized control trial as a research tool in torture rehabilitation	Andrea	Northwood	anorthwood@cvt.org
The rehabilitation of victims of torture in an African context	Florentine	YIMGUEP WAKEM Epouse NDEUMEN	menflow@yahoo.fr
The right to rehabilitation in areas of civil war,	Mohamad	Safa dictatorship and terrorism

The role of bone scintigraphy on torture diagnosis	Rasime Şebnem	Korur Fincanci
The silencing of practitioners in Australian immigration detention	April	Pearman	april.pearman@asetts.org.au
The use of culturally appropriate expressive art therapy for older political torture survivors: A qualitative analyses of the Pansori activity group in Korea	Hyunnie	Ahn	ahn12@ewha.ac.kr
Tortura sexual contra hombres y mujeres en México	Felicitas	Treue	treue@contralatortura.org
Tortura y maltrato en los centros de detención de migrantes (estaciones migratorias en México), ausencia total de rehabilitación	Fernando	Valadez
Torture by other means: CIA victims and the denial of rehabilitation to survivors at Guantanamo Bay	Jess	Ghannam	jess.ghannam@ucsf.edu	Mitch Robinson mitchrobinson@outlook.com

Torture rehabilitation in IDP camps in Sudan: Working with multiple actors to deliver services in low-resource and high-risk contexts – the example of Kalma Camp	Nagib	Hassan
Torture survivors resettled in Denmark: Evidence for greater multiplicity of problems and higher symptom load compared with other patient groups	Uwe	Harlacher	uwe.harlacher@hotmail.com
Tortured and traumatized refugees at DIGNITY (Danish Institute Against Torture) - Comparison of severity of symptoms and treatment outcome of an interdisciplinary rehabilitation program	Linda	Nordin	ln@dignityinstitute.dk
Training community mental health workers to deliver torture rehabilitative services in low resource, conflict-affected settings	Mary	Bunn
Training community mental health workers to deliver torture rehabilitative	Diego Fernando	Rodriguez	drodriguez@heartlandalliance.org

services in low resource, conflict-affected settings
Transgenerational transition of trauma of fathers with torture history: Family dynamics, attachment relations and children's resilience in Palestinian families	Raija-Leena	Punamäki
Tratamiento y rehabilitación de sobrevivientes de tortura exilados en México	Fernando	Valadez
Trauma rehabilitation of Iraqi and Syrian refugees in Jordan: An interdisciplinary, group therapy approach to mental health, physiotherapy and social services needs	Veronica	Laveta	vlaveta@cvt.org
Traumatic experiences of refugees who are in transit through the Republic of Serbia	Bojana	Trivuncic	bzivanovic@ian.org.rs
Treating staff to treat patients	Anette	Carnemalm	anette.carnemalm@redcross.se
Treatment of survivors of severe torture by an integrative approach combining medical screening, narrative	Hakon	Stenmark	hakon.stenmark@stolav.no exposure therapy and physiotherapy

Twofold approach to combating torture: Addressing root causes through advocacy and service delivery for treating its manifestations	KHALIDA	SALIMI
Violence against women and girls in the Great Lakes region in Africa	Anne	Kapelembe Muonga
Women and sexual violence as torture: To tell or not to tell?	Nimisha	Patel
Women victims of violence in the city of Conakry, Guinea referred to the centre CAPREC in Senegal	Dieynaba	Ndoye	dieynaba.ndoye7@gmail.com
Women's sexual assault and human rights from a feminist perspective: Experiences from Turkey	Sahika	Yuksel	sy4650@gmail.com
Working with asylum seekers in Croatia - New challenge in rehabilitation of torture victims	Zdenka	Pantic	zpantic@yahoo.com
Challenges of mass influx and aligning service delivery - Dr Federica Zamatto	Federica	Zamatto	federica.zamatto@rome.msf.org

